

Greetings! Here's my latest news for the month of October:

- For the past four months, I've been busy acclimating to my new job as a Recovery Specialist at Lincoln Regional Center. I help patients take an active role in their treatment and to learn and foster the recovery skills that will enable them to leave the hospital and return to live successful lives in their communities. The work is challenging and it has tested my own wellness skills. However, I work with incredible people, and it is the best job I've ever had.
- This month, I'm celebrating my FIFTH year as an announcer at NET Radio, Nebraska's Public Radio Station. I've been the weekend morning host for over a year, and I love it. Tune in Saturday and Sunday mornings to hear me and enjoy the great NPR programs Weekend Edition, Car Talk, Wait Wait Don't Tell Me, and Being. In Lincoln NET Radio is 91.1 FM, or listen online at netNebraska.org/radio.
- I'm looking forward to having my poem "Vanilla Trysts" published in the forthcoming Cave Canem Anthology due out next year. Will keep you posted.
- I'm still singing twice a month at the 11:59 service at First Plymouth here in Lincoln. Click on the link "Dr Diva's Performances" for dates.
- I'm still trying to raise funds for my third CD, which I hope to release in 2013! If you want to help me out, buy my CD's and poetry book! If you already have them, buy them as Holiday gifts. All proceeds will go to my recording project. I need to raise at least $2,000.
- I am heading to Denver over Thanksgiving and will sit in with my best friend and THE GREATEST TENOR SAX PLAYER IN AMERICA, Keith Oxman! If you're in Denver, check out the show November 23rd at the wonderful jazz club Dazzle. For more information: www.dazzlejazz.com

Blessings,
